Sub: Invitation for Research papers for Publication in the Journal of University Institute of Legal Studies, a yearly-refereed Publication of University Institute of Legal Studies.

Sir/Madam,

We are pleased to inform you that the Volume XIII of the Journal of University Institute of Legal Studies is due for its publication in 2019. Ours is a refereed, reviewed and an interdisciplinary journal having an ISSN 2229-3906. Besides Law, we also welcome original articles from different fields of Social Sciences like Economics and Commerce, Political Science, Sociology, History and Languages etc. The aim of our journal is to provide a platform to academicians, researchers, legal practitioners and Judges to explore different areas of Law and Society. The interesting revelations by them will not only enrich us but will also be fruitful for the development of our socio-legal system.

We invite scholarly articles for the above-mentioned volume of the journal. We would appreciate your contributions latest by 30 April, 2019. To facilitate speedy processing of your article, kindly follow the instructions attached herewith.

Authors will be informed as soon as possible regarding the decision of the Editorial Committee about publication. Please address all editorial correspondence to Dr Chanchal Narang or Dr Jasneet Walia, Co-Editors, Journal of University Institute of Legal Studies, University Institute of Legal Studies, Sector 14, Panjab University Chandigarh or e-mail at professorrattan@pu.ac.in

Warm Regards

Important Instructions

1. Manuscripts (not exceeding 7000 words, font size 12, theme font- Times New Roman) must be typed on one side of the paper, double-spaced, with one inch margin on all four sides in MS-Word format only in colour Black, will be accepted.
2. In the first page of the manuscript (cover page), please provide full names (first, middle and last) and full addresses (Institute's address along with designation, correspondence address along with e-mail) and contact numbers of the author(s). The author's name or affiliation should not appear anywhere else in body of manuscript, because we follow blind peer review process. Every manuscript should be labeled as; A Research Paper or Case Comments or A Book Review, etc. The actual paper should commence from the second page containing the title followed by an abstract (not exceeding 100 words and adequately describing the work and its significance), then four to five keywords and the main document.
3. Tables (if any) should be numbered consecutively. Title of the table should appear above the table and sources at the bottom.
4. The bibliographic details of all works cited in the manuscript must be given separately. References and citations should be complete in all respects and arranged in alphabetical order. Citations of the law related works are to be given as per the format of Indian Law Institute (detail available at www.ili.ac.in).For keeping uniformity in references (in social sciences), use MLA style of referencing.
5. Only works, which have not been published earlier or which are not being considered for publications elsewhere, will be entertained. A separate declaration to this effect duly signed by corresponding author must be sent along with the covering letter.
6. The review process takes at least 3- 4 months. Manuscripts not accepted for publication will not be sent back to contributors. The manuscripts lacking the recommended pattern and style can be rejected on this ground also. The decision of Editorial Board is final and will be informed through e-mail only thus it is obligatory for the contributors to provide their e-mail addresses for correspondence.
7. Although articles shall be subject to rigorous editing process, the accuracy of quotations, titles, names, dates, charts, tables and footnotes is the sole responsibility of the author(s).
