ABOUT PANJAB UNIVERSITY

Established in 1882 in Lahore, Panjab University is one of the oldest Universities in India. The university has 75 teaching and research departments and 15 centres/chairs for teaching and research at the main campus located at Chandigarh. It has 188 affiliated colleges spread over Punjab, Haryana, Himachal Pradesh, Chandigarh and Regional Centres at Muktsar, Ludhiana and Hoshiarpur. The University has been incorporated for the purposes, among others, of imparting education in Arts, Letters, Science and the learned professions and of furthering advancement of learning, the prosecution of original research, with power to appoint University Professors, Readers and Lecturers, to hold and manage educational endowments, to erect, equip and maintain University colleges, libraries, laboratories and museums, to making regulations relating to the residence and conduct of students and to do all such acts as tend to promote study and research. The University has been an alma mater to some of the most recognised faces in the country, including former Prime Ministers Mr. Manmohan Singh and Mr. I.K. Gujral. A strong political culture can be seen in the University with elections for various departmental posts and the student council being held every year. It is a time of much furore and enthusiasm which incorporates active competition from a number of student political parties. The University has exclusive sport facilities, aiming to incorporate infrastructure for all sports. It has stood to become a beacon of the bright future of the students who toil for hours inside it. The students, staff and faculty all endeavour together to ensure that the University stays at the very top for the years to come.

ABOUT UNIVERSITY INSTITUTE OF LEGAL STUDIES

University Institute of Legal Studies (UILS) was established in 2004-05 with the aim of providing quality education and training in the legal profession. Despite having recent beginnings and facing teething problems, UILS has become one of the premier institutions in the country for providing legal education. The Institute has pioneered in providing a holistic environment for growth which is not limited to the classroom. The stimulating and interactive academic environment of the Institute helps to hone the Drafting, Research, Advocacy, Interviewing and Negotiating skills of the students. While the faculty sets a standard that well serves the expectations of the students, the students are trained in essence of the substantive laws, techniques of procedural laws, methods of client counselling and skills in legal and social sciences research etc. The Institute provides opportunities to the creative students to pursue their interests in various artistic fields inside and outside the department. The Institute also exposes its students to the 'law in action' through compulsory internships with Hon'ble Judges of Supreme Court, Punjab and Haryana High Court, eminent lawyers, legal firms, various commissions and NGOs etc. The Institute's own Legal Aid Clinic provides free legal services to the economically weaker sections of the society as a part of community outreach programme of the Institute. It also offers opportunities to the students to work in co-ordination with practicing lawyers. The focus of the Institution is not only schooling but complete education and shaping of the personality of its students to not only be successful in their respective fields, but be responsible and productive citizens.

ABOUT CRIMINAL JUSTICE PRACTICUM CELL

Criminal Justice Practicum Cell (CJPC) is an applied learning programme for the youth so as to understand the depth of criminal justice system through real world experience. It is an essential first step in entering the world which will help the students to enhance skills and refine their career goals and plans. CJPC's agenda is to expand and enrich student understanding of the criminal justice system. It will supplement the traditional classroom teaching with some real life intern experience. It will help the students to develop professional knowledge. We are directed towards conducting activities and events that may be of academic and non-academic nature that will fundamentally enable the students to work on their communication, resourcefulness and creativity.

ABOUT NATIONAL LEGISLATION DRAFTING COMPETITION

The Competition seeks to provide a platform to the brilliant and ardent legal minds of the institutions to have a pragmatic insight into the working of the law making machinery of our country and augment their legislative drafting and law interpretation skills.

Through this competition, the cell seeks to promote the participation of the students in the political processes and functioning of democracy by drafting laws on contemporary issues that are yet to be deliberated by the Legislature. The competition seeks to provide a platform for the exchange of ideas and experience. This competitions would serve as an academic stimulation and harness skills like drafting, critical thinking, writing skills and teamwork, making them better professionals

Under the same program, the CJPC team organized A National Webinar on "Making of Law" aimed at explaining the processes involved in enactment of a law by the parliament of India by Honorable N.K. Premachandran, Member of Parliament, Lok Sabha on 3rd May 2020.

The webinar encompassed a detailed insight into the legislative processes involved in enactment of a Law in India including drafting, presentation of a bill, references made to parliamentary committee, parliamentary debate and discussion, inclusion of suggested amendments and voting in both the houses of parliament and thereafter sending the passed bill for presidential approval and implementation.
